CENTRE

OUR VISION

The CHS Life Centre provides a safe and welcoming home to bring people together, a resourcing harbour to equip and empower,
a linking hub to connect people of a similar heart and passion, all within a holy place where all can encounter the living God.

COMMUNITY

The CHS Life Centre provides a platform to empower, mobilise and equip local community initiatives.

Together we can make a difference in tackling some of the largest socio-economic challenges in South Africa.

Whilst every aspect of your event objective is pursued by a team of experts, know that your financial spend contributes to supporting the Community, projects and Mission Partners.

Your EVENT changes LIVES!

This is the story of the prodigal son - it should really be called the running Father - who waited every day for his boy to return who had rejected him so badly, and finally when he saw him from a long way off - his Father ran to him and hugged him. x Luke 15 x x x x

A woman is seated at a white table, looking down at something on the table. She is wearing a light-colored top and brown pants. A water bottle and some papers are on the table.
